

PRIVACY NOTICE

I. INTRODUCTION OF DATA CONTROLLER

In order to ensure the legality of its internal data protection processes and data subjects' rights, Hungarian University of Sports Science (hereinafter: University, Controller, Data Controller or "We") issues the following privacy notice.

Name of Data controller:	Hungarian University of Sports Science
Institutional identification nr.:	FI89399
Registered seat:	1123 Budapest, Alkotás u. 42-48.
Representative:	Prof. Dr. Tamás Sterbenz rector
Electronic address of the data protection officer (DPO):	tf-adatvedelem@tf.hu

As specified in Act CCIV of 2011 on national higher education (hereinafter: Nftv.), the Controller is an organization established for pursuing the core businesses of education, scientific research, and artistic activity – hereinafter jointly: higher education tasks –, which processes personal data required for performing this public task in the course of its operations by law.

The University processes personal data in compliance with applicable law, in particular the following:

- Act CXII of 2011 on informational self-determination and freedom of information (hereinafter: Infotv.);
- Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (hereinafter: Regulation or GDPR).

The Data Controller keeps personal data confidential and employs technical and organizational measures relating to the storage of processing of said data in order to ensure its safety.

Definitions

The conceptual structure of this information coincides with the interpretative definitions specified in Article 4 of the Regulation, supplemented at some points by the interpretative provisions of Infotv. Section 3.

When this information sets out provisions on data or data processing, they should be interpreted as personal data and the processing thereof.

II. PURPOSES OF DATA PROCESSING

1. Registration and ticket purchase for the Summer School

The University is organizing the "Physiology of Top Performance – Global Exercise Physiology Summer Academy" Summer School (hereinafter: Summer School), to be held in Budapest between 29 June and 3 July 2026. The Summer School may be attended either in person or online. Interested participants may register via the following link: <https://international.tf.hu/summer-school/>.

The Summer School includes lectures, seminars, workshops, poster presentations, networking opportunities, and optional social programs. Registration for the Summer School is voluntary.

The purpose of data processing

The purpose of data processing is to:

- facilitate the organization and administration of the Summer School,
- manage participant registration and communication,
- determine participant status and selected ticket type,
- organize in-person and online participation,
- prepare attendance records and certificates of participation, and
- support the coordination of academic and networking activities related to the Summer School.

Processed personal data and the legal basis of the data processing

In the context of registration for the Summer School, the following personal data are collected directly from the data subjects (participants):

- a) full name as written in the participant's passport (for identification and certificate preparation),
- b) citizenship (for organizational and statistical purposes),
- c) gender (for administrative and statistical purposes),
- d) home university or institutional affiliation (for organizational and identification purposes),
- e) email address (for communication purposes), and
- f) selected ticket type and participation format (in-person or online) (for administration and capacity planning purposes).
- g) for in-person participants their willingness to present at the Poster Section
- h) for in-person participants their request for an invitation letter for visa purposes (if needed)
- i) for in-person participants, if an invitation letter is requested, a scanned version of the participant's passport
- j) for student participants, a proof of their student status (e.g. a valid student ID or a support letter from their faculty)

Ticket purchases are processed through the Cooltix system. For the purpose of processing payments, the Cooltix system processes the personal data of the data subjects relating to the payment transaction. Tickets required for participation in the Summer School may be purchased by the data subjects via free bank transfer, credit or debit card payment, or digital wallet payment methods.

The legal basis for processing personal data is the performance of a task carried out in the public interest by the University in accordance with Article 6(1)(e) of the GDPR. This includes promoting educational, sport science, and international cooperation activities through the organization of an international academic summer school.

The source of personal data

The personal data are provided directly by the data subject during the registration process.

Access to personal data

The personal data of the data subject may only be accessed by the employees of the Data Controller in order to perform their duties laid out in their job descriptions.

The Cooltix system is operated in Hungary by Cooltix Kft. (registered office: H-1084 Budapest, József utca 3. 3/27.; company registration number: 01-09-286080). Its Privacy Policy is available at the following link: <https://support.cooltix.com/en/articles/6912348-data-privacy-policy>. Personal data collected in connection with ticket purchases are processed by Cooltix Kft. as an independent data controller.

Transfer of personal data to a third country or international organization

The Data Controller does not transfer any personal data of the subject to a third country or international organization.

Time period of processing personal data

The University stores personal data only until the conclusion of the Summer School and the completion of related administrative tasks. All personal data will be deleted within 30 days after the end of the Summer School, unless a longer retention period is required by law.

Automated decision making and profiling

No automated decision making and profiling is taking place during the data processing.

2. Taking and Use of Photographs and Video Recordings at the Summer School

The purpose of data processing

The University shall take photographs and video recordings at the Summer School, which may be published on its website, its online and printed promotional materials, or social media platforms for the purpose of reporting on the Summer School. The purpose of sharing such recordings is to present the Summer School and, through it, the events organised by the Data Controller and the activities of the Data Controller in general to as wide an audience as possible.

The photographs and recordings may be published on the Data Controller's own online platforms, including in particular the following:

- the University's social media pages, primarily:
  - the University's Facebook page (<https://www.facebook.com/uniTestnevelesiEgyetem/>);
  - the University's Instagram page (<https://www.instagram.com/testnevelesiegyetem/>);

- the University's TikTok page (<https://www.tiktok.com/@testnevelesiegyetem>);
- the University's YouTube channel (<https://www.youtube.com/@tf1925/videos>).

Processed personal data and the legal basis of the data processing

The image, likeness, and activities of the data subjects as recorded in photographs and video recordings.

The data processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest by the University, specifically the promotion of its own activities. Accordingly, the legal basis for the processing is Article 6(1)(e) of the GDPR.

Data subjects may object to the processing of their personal data and consequently to the taking or publication of photographs or video recordings.

The source of personal data

As a general rule, the photographs and video recordings are made by the employees of the University. In certain cases, recordings may also be created by external photographers or videographers engaged by the Data Controller, in respect of whom the Data Controller shall provide ad hoc information regarding the identity of the persons or companies creating the recordings.

Access to personal data

The personal data of the data subject may only be accessed by the employees of the Data Controller in order to perform their duties laid out in their job descriptions.

The Cooltix system is operated in Hungary by Cooltix Kft. (registered office: H-1084 Budapest, József utca 3. 3/27.; company registration number: 01-09-286080). Its Privacy Policy is available at the following link: <https://support.cooltix.com/en/articles/6912348-data-privacy-policy>. Personal data collected in connection with ticket purchases are processed by Cooltix Kft. as an independent data controller.

Transfer of personal data to a third country or international organization

The Data Controller does not transfer personal data to any third country or international organisation. However, due to the borderless nature of the internet, photographs and video recordings published online may be accessed by anyone regardless of their geographical location. The Data Controller has no control over how such photographs and video recordings published on the internet may subsequently be used by those accessing them and therefore accepts no liability in this regard.

Time period of processing personal data

Following publication, the University does not remove the recordings from the above-mentioned platforms. Furthermore, once the photographs and video recordings have been published online, the Data Controller no longer has any control over who may access them, or where and for how long they may remain available.

Automated decision making and profiling

No automated decision making and profiling is taking place during the data processing.

III. THE RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT

Right to be informed

The data subject has the right to be informed with regard to the data processing, which right is observed by the Data Controller by providing this privacy notice.

Right of access by the data subject

The data subjects shall have the right to obtain from the Data Controller confirmation as to whether or not personal data concerning them are being processed, and, where that is the case, access to the personal data and the following information:

- a) the purposes of the processing;
- b) the categories of personal data concerned;
- c) the recipients or categories of recipient to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed, in particular recipients in third countries or international organisations;
- d) where possible, the planned period for which the personal data will be stored, or, if not possible, the criteria used to determine that period;
- e) the data subject is informed about their right to request from the controller rectification or erasure of personal data or restriction of processing of personal data concerning the data subject or to object to such processing;
- f) the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority;
- g) where the personal data are not collected directly from the data subject, any available information as to their source;
- h) the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, and, at least in those cases, meaningful information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and the envisaged consequences of such processing for the data subject.

The Controller shall, upon request, provide the data subject with a copy of the personal data processed.

Right to rectification

The data subjects shall have the right to obtain from the Controller without undue delay the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning them. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, the data subject shall have the right to have incomplete personal data completed, including by means of providing a supplementary statement.

If a request is made to rectify (modify) personal data then the data subject needs to prove the authenticity of the data to be modified. Additionally, the data subject must verify that the person requesting rectification is authorised to do so. This is the only way for the data controller to verify the authenticity of the new data before modifying it.

Please report any changes in your personal data to the Data Controller as soon as possible, facilitating the legality of data processing and the enforcement of your rights.

Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten')

The data subjects shall have the right to obtain from the Data Controller the erasure of personal data concerning them without undue delay and the controller shall have the obligation to erase personal data without undue delay where one of the following grounds applies:

- a) the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- b) the data subject withdraws consent on which the processing is based, and where there is no other legal ground for the processing;
- c) the data subject objects to the processing and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing, or the data subject objects to the processing of personal data for direct marketing purposes;
- d) the personal data have been unlawfully processed;
- e) the personal data have to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in Union or Member State law to which the controller is subject;
- f) the personal data have been collected in relation to the offer of information society services.

Right to restriction of processing

The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the Data Controller restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- a) the accuracy of the personal data is contested by the data subject, for a period enabling the Controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- b) the processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
- c) the Controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the data subject for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;
- d) the data subject has objected to processing pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the Controller override those of the data subject.

Right to object

If the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller (point (e) of Article 6(1) of the GDPR), the data subjects shall have the right to object, on grounds relating to their particular situation, at any time to processing of personal data concerning them, including profiling based on the relevant provisions.

Right to data portability

The data subjects shall have the right to receive the personal data concerning them, which they have provided to the Data Controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from the controller to which the personal data have been provided, where:

- a) the processing is based on consent of the data subject or on a contract according to Article 6 Paragraph (1) Point b) of the GDPR; and
- b) the processing is carried out by automated means.

PROCEDURES FOR ENFORCING THE RIGHTS OF DATA SUBJECTS

The above rights can be exercised by data subject by sending an electronic mail to this e-mail address: tf-adatvedelem@tf.hu, or regular mail to the seat of the Data Controller or in person at the seat of the Data Controller. The data subject shall be informed about the measure taken in response to the request within 1 month. If we are unable to fulfil the request, we inform the data subject in 1 month about the reasons of the rejection and the administrative and judicial redress rights of the data subject.

The rights of the deceased data subject may be enforced within five (5) years by an authorized person who possesses administrative provisions, or a statement towards the Data Controller included in a public document or full probative private document. If multiple such statements exist at the same Data Controller, then the statement made the latest will prevail. If the data subject has made no such legal statement, then a close relative – as defined in Act V of 2013 on the Civil Code – is still able to enforce certain rights of the deceased within five (5) years of death. These rights are defined in Article 16 (right to rectification) and Article 21 (right to object), as well as – if the data processing was unlawful during the life of the data subject, or the purpose of data processing has ceased with the death of the data subject – Articles 17 (right to erasure) and 18 (right to restriction of processing) of the GDPR. The close relative who exercises their right first will be entitled to enforce rights of the data subject as set forth in this Paragraph.

IV. THE RIGHT TO LODGE A COMPLAINT AND TO AN EFFECTIVE JUDICIAL REMEDY

In order to enforce their right to judicial remedy, the data subjects may take legal action against the Controller if they consider that the Data Controller or a data processor acting on behalf of or under the instructions of the Data Controller is processing their personal data in breach of the provisions of laws on the processing of personal data or of binding legal acts of the European Union. According to Article 79 (2) of the GDPR proceedings against the data controller shall be brought before the courts of the Member State where the data controller has an establishment, i.e., before the Budapest-Capital Regional Court (Hungary). The court shall deal with the case as a matter of priority. Alternatively, such proceedings may be brought before the courts of the Member State where the data subject has habitual residence. Court application: <https://birosag.hu/birosag-kereso>.

Without prejudice to judicial remedy, according to Article 77 (1) of the GDPR every data subject shall have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority, in particular in the Member State of data subject's habitual residence, place of work or place of the alleged infringement (i.e. in Hungary), alleging that the processing of personal data by the Data Controller has resulted in a violation of rights or an imminent threat thereof, or that the Data Controller is restricting the exercise of rights related to the processing of personal data or is refusing to exercise such rights.
